

DESIGN TRENDS

Once the dust clears, you'll crave new furniture. Here's the best of the latest.

Elevate a standard shape: CAPPELLINI's Elise sofa by Jasper Morrison has polished aluminum legs supporting a perfectly proportioned seat (in three sizes, $4,470-$5,845). cappellini.it.

In case you didn't inherit an original, Billy Haines's Modern Elbow Chair (as shown in shearling, $3,300) has been reissued by LINDLEY & ASSOCIATES for a new generation to enjoy. 310-289-0280.

The Frazier étagère in American walnut by Laura Kirar for BAKER ($3,386) provides elegant storage and display space in an entry hall or library. bakerfurniture.com.

The ski tracks of the Swiss Alps inspired the lines—and name—of LINLEY's new St. Moritz chair, whose leather seat and walnut arms top a stainless-steel frame ($3,580). 011-44-20-7730-7300.

BY LINDLEY & ASSOCIATES; REARSON BRUCE (SEANE)

Part of the collaboration with Thomas G. HICKORY, the Zane ottoman (for both) and walnut finish lights the lines. hick

In case you didn't inherit an original, Billy Haines's Modern Elbow Chair (as shown in shearling, $3,300) has been reissued by LINDLEY & ASSOCIATES for a new generation to enjoy. 310-289-0280.

